

BASIC Research Coordinator Course

This two day workshop developed and run by leading ICU researchers will introduce to the concepts of:

- Research process and research question
- Study designs
- Site investigator files
- Ethical aspects of clinical research
- Data collection and management
- Safety, quality control and assurance

This course is designed as a practical introduction to Research Coordination.

Aimed at healthcare workers with an interest and experience of undertaking research coordination. The course will involve brief lectures, group interactive tutorials and skill stations.

Date: 3rd-4th March 2024

Venue: Museum of Literature Ireland, 86 St Stephen's Green, Saint Kevin's, Dublin, D02 XY43

Cost: € 25.00– Numbers are limited

For more information and booking, please contact kathy.brickell@ucd.ie

For more information on registration, please contact marina.sweeney@ucd.ie

Faculty:

Prof. Alistair Nichol

Ms Kathy Brickell

