

PRIME Ireland Annual Symposium 2025

The Museum of Modern Literature, 86 St. Stephens Green
8th of September 2025

Programme Outline

Monday 8th September

09:00-09:15 Registration

09:15-09:45 Welcome, PRIME Ireland and ECR Initiatives

Early-Mid Career Researcher (EMCR) Session 1: Brain Injury, Sedation, Transfusion and Physiology

09:45-10:00 TBC Kate Ainscough

10:00-10:15 The Role of Extracellular Vesicles in disorders of haemostasis and organ injury following Acute Brain – COALESCE Brain Aisling McMahon

10:15-10:30 Retrospective Review of Traumatic Brain Injuries in ICU Admissions Following E-Scooter and E-Bike Accidents Michelle Smyth

10:30-10:45 A prospective ward-based multidisciplinary intervention for post-intensive care syndrome (PICS) Yvelynne Kelly

10:45-11:15 Panel Discussion

11:15-11:30 Tea Break

11:30-12:30 Perspectives on what PPI means to me

12:30-13:30 Breakout meetings for discussions

Room 1:
PPI

Room 2:
Research Co-ordination

Room 3:
ECR

13:30-14:30 Lunch

ECR Session 2: Pandemic Resilience & Mechanical Ventilation

14:30-14:45 Plasma soluble urokinase plasminogen activator has potential to enable precision medicine clinical trials of patients with ARDS Andrew Boyle

14:45-15:00 Research Prioritisation Process for a Global Respiratory Platform Trial Niamh Mahon

15:00-15:15 TBC Aileen Sharry

15:15-15:30 Tea Break

15:30-15:45 Inflammatory phenotypes can be prospectively identified at the bedside in patients with the acute respiratory distress syndrome (ARDS) Kiran Reddy

15:45-16:00 TBC TBC

16:00-16:30 Panel Discussion

16:30-17:00 Meeting Close

Dinner: Fade Street Social 6pm